Preserve the memory of someone you love

Preserve the memory of someone you love

Preserve the memory of someone you love with Enduring Memories.

Whether the person is a mother, father, a sister, brother, son or daughter, aunt, uncle, grandparent or friend, Enduring Memories can document a loved one's memoirs, life, or part of that person's life story.

Would you like to preserve the first years of a child's life, or the story of a child's life up until they reach adulthood? Perhaps you have an elderly relative whose memoirs you would like to keep for future generations. The choice is yours.

At Enduring Memories we can style a package to suit your needs.

Enduring Memories will provide you with a video and/or hard cover biography of someone you love to show to future generations. Video can either be VHS cassette or DVD.

We cater for many languages including English, Italian, Greek, Chinese, Japanese and Sri Lankan.

Packages

A typical package such as a Memoirs Package would include a DVD video of the subject and include a two hour video interview with the subject covering topics such as ancestry, family of origin, early years, education, military service, love and marriage, family life, career and adventures and golden years. Treasured photographs, documents and mementos can also be included in the video footage. Each video production is professionally produced to include menu selections and chapter titles. Background music may be selected from our library or a person's favourite music may also be used dependent upon permission of the owner of the copyright.

Other packages include the First 5 Years, Twenty First Birthday Packages (0-21 years), Military Service, My Career etc. Special packages can be designed to suit your needs, just ask us. We also have a Hard cover version of the above packages.
